

Draft

The mission of the Upper Columbia Working Group for

COPY

Responsible Stewardship is to conduct a credible, defensible, independent and verifiable scientific study to determine the health status of the Upper Columbia River, to show it's impact on the area's economy, society and health conditions to help develop the feasibility of remedial actions, if necessary.