Proclamation

Now be it known to all those people residing in Washington State and most especially residing within the boundaries of Stevens County and the jurisdiction thereof that:

Whereas, communities across the country rely on volunteer firefighters, EMS providers, rescue workers, coaches, teaching assistants, and other endeavors for the benefit of others; and

Whereas, as people strive to lead lives that reflect their values, the expression of civil life has evolved; and

Whereas, Stevens County is blessed with people who tackle society’s greatest challenges, who build stronger communities and be a force that transforms the world; and

Whereas, most volunteer departments and organizations are looking for new recruits; and

Whereas, citizens can check with their local Chambers of Commerce or city administration, or check the Citizen participation section of the Stevens County website at www.co.stevens.wa.us for vacancies on boards and commissions; and

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Board of County Commissioners of Stevens County, Washington do hereby proclaim April 7 – 13 to be National Volunteer Week. We urge every resident to volunteer – whether it be on a board, commission, schools, scouting programs, 4-H, the Fair, rescue work, firefighting, EMS and other programs; and

BE IT FURTHER PROCLAIMED:

NOW, THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF THE STEVENS COUNTY COMMISSIONERS WOULD LIKE TO SINCERELY THANK ALL OF THE VOLUNTEERS WHO SERVE – IN WHATEVER CAPACITY – IN OUR COUNTY.

Passed by the Board of Stevens County Commissioners meeting in regular session at Colville, Washington, by the following vote, then signed by its membership and attested to by its Clerk in authorization of such passage the 5th day of April, 2019.
